

5 TIPS

FOR PROPER KITCHEN PLANNING

IF YOU WANT TO BUY A BURGER KITCHEN, THE BEST THING YOU CAN DO IS TO HAVE A PERSONAL AND EXPERIENCED KITCHEN PLANNING - BECAUSE WHEN EVERYTHING IS IN THE RIGHT PLACE AND A FEEL-GOOD ATMOSPHERE IS CREATED, IT COOKS MUCH BETTER. WE HAVE COMPILED SOME HELPFUL TIPS FOR A PERFECT KITCHEN EXPERIENCE.

#1

BUDGET PLANNING:

Your own kitchen is not only based on personal wishes, but also on financial means. Think in advance how much money you want to spend on cabinets, fronts, worktops and electrical appliances – and whether you want to install technology from the old kitchen into the new.

#2

IT'S THE OPTICS:

For a harmonious feeling of space, it is important to adapt the style of the kitchen to the rest of your home's arrangement. Design, colour and material determine your own taste and the right ambience for you.

#3

THE RIGHT SHAPE:

Decide on a kitchen shape that fits your room size – whether a simple kitchen line, a L- or an U-shape: All elements should be easily and quickly accessible. Cupboards and shelves can be individually designed, while decorative elements such as batten luminaires and back panels set additional accents.

#4

TECHNICALLY EQUIPPED:

Consider in advance which electronic appliances you will need in the kitchen, as they take up different amounts of space depending on the equipment. Two or four hotplates, a fridge with or without a freezer, the type of the oven or the size of the dishwasher are decisions that have a lasting influence on a kitchen.

#5

ALL MADE TO MEASURE:

Once everything has been planned and selected, an expert should check and measure whether the kitchen really fits into the room. This prevents unevenness and unattractive gaps during assembly and allows the equipment to be adapted to the personal, optimum working height.
